Love One Another

Dear friends: On the previous Sunday, Jesus said, "remain in my Love, like a branch to vine". One of the steps is to follow God's commandments. And today, Jesus will continue to exhort us on this command of Love.

In the second reading, John tells us that God is love. This love of God for us prompts us to love others. Anyone who fails to love can never have known God, because God is love. In the Gospel, Jesus declares that the intimate relationship that the disciples have with Jesus and God the Father, must be translated into the disciples loving one another as Jesus has loved them. Jesus tells His disciples that He has chosen them personally and commissioned them to bear fruit in the Father.
